RCIA Hospitality Sign-Up

Hello everyone!

We are about ready to get RCIA underway (classes begin Jan. 22), and we again will need to depend on the generosity of parishioners like you to make it happen.

We supply breakfast for 12-15 people every Sunday we have RCIA. Anything you'd like to bring (breakfast casseroles, breakfast tacos, pancakes, pigs-in-a-blanket, pastries of any kind, etc.) would be great. You don't have to worry about plates, napkins, or plastic ware - I'll take care of those. If you could bring juice or milk to drink, that would be awesome.

We'll take care of the coffee & hot chocolate.

Dates begin Jan.22 and conclude April 30. If you would like to help or if you have any questions, contact Mary Rak. And feel free to see if any friends would like to choose a date or two to help as well. As always, the more people who sign up, the better!

FINE WINES THIS SATURDAY!

We bumped our Fine Wines meeting this month to the third Saturday. As usual, we'll meet at 7:00 p.m. and have our potluck dinner, followed by our speaker. This month we are welcoming students who went to San Antonio at the first of the month to attend the national SEEK conference, sponsored by FOCUS. I can't wait to hear from just a few of the students (around 85 from St. JPII went) about their life-changing experience listening to top Catholic speakers from around the nation and sharing their faith with 13,000 other Catholic college students. It should be quite inspiring.

New to the parish? Come join our gathering of parishioners for food & fellowship at the C (Catholic Campus Center) on January 21 at 7:00 p.m. (We usually meet on the second Saturday of the month.)

Haven't been to Fine Wines in a while? Come on and join us! Know someone else who might like to come? Bring them! Let's build our community at St. John Paul II by spending some enjoyable time together.

Thinking it's time for BIBLE STUDY?

If you'd like to check out the Bible Timeline Bible Study, come to our introductory meeting on January 25 at 6:00 p.m. at the C. We'll have sample materials, an introductory video, and more.

Come join us as we discuss how the program works as well as deciding times and dates to meet. For more information, contact Mary Rak.
