Letter from our UNT Campus Minister

Peace be with you!

I wanted to thank all of you for supporting our campus ministry with your prayers and donations. We had a great year last year! We saw a 25% increase in the average attendance of our Thursday student community night and saw a strong commitment to prayer among the students. To name a few areas of growth for the upcoming year, we are adding two new catechetical classes in addition to our Theology of the Body class- The Communion of Faith and Reason (a blend of apologetics and catechesis) and Didache: The Catholic Faith Explained, a more basic catechetical class. We are also starting a weekly Men's Ministry called St. Joseph's Workshop led by Fr. Kyle and a monthly Women's Ministry group to help build a culture of authentic sisterhood and explore the feminine genius. We may also have the beginnings of a consistent works of mercy group. It's all very exciting! As we expand our ministry, we are able to offer a holistic way of life to the students in which one becomes solidly rooted in Christ and led by the Holy Spirit in daily life so as to be formed into saints.

We need help to accomplish this! One need UNT Catholic Campus Ministry still has this semester is for meal providers for Thursday Night's Mass & Meal. There is a deepening of relationship and community when a group can share a meal together, just as our deepest communion with Christ is through a meal. As we seek to feed the students physically, we pray that it opens their hearts to also be nourished spiritually by Christ.

We are expecting an average of about 80 students on Thursday nights, with possible growth to 90+ this year. I ask that a meal consist of a protein, a starch, a vegetable, and a fruit or dessert. JPPI can provide the plates, utensils, and drinks.

If you can help, please sign up on this website so all can see what is available:

<https://www.volunteersignup.org/K79K8>. We still have 8 dates available. If you would like to contribute part of the meal, but not the whole meal, please let me know- anything is helpful! Just let me know which part you plan to bring: a protein, starch, vegetable, or fruit/dessert.

Thank you for your generosity!

Peace in Christ,
Jenny Lynn Pelzel

Hospitality Helpers Needed!

Our RCIA year starts this weekend, and we are in great need of people who can supply a simple breakfast for participants in the program. We meet on Sunday mornings after the 8:30 a.m. Mass. If you would be willing to sign up and bring a simple meal (breakfast casseroles, pastries, pancakes, breakfast tacos, whatever you choose), it would be a great welcoming gesture to those studying our faith and preparing for the Sacraments. Contact Mary Rak for a sign-up sheet and pick a week or two that you can help this year's class.

RCIA Sponsors

We are in need of parishioners to be sponsors for several people going through RCIA this year. If you are 18 years old or more, have been Confirmed, are in good standing with the Church, and are actively practicing your faith, you could make a world of difference in the life of a Catechumen or Candidate. Contact Mary Rak for more information.
